

28 January, 2009

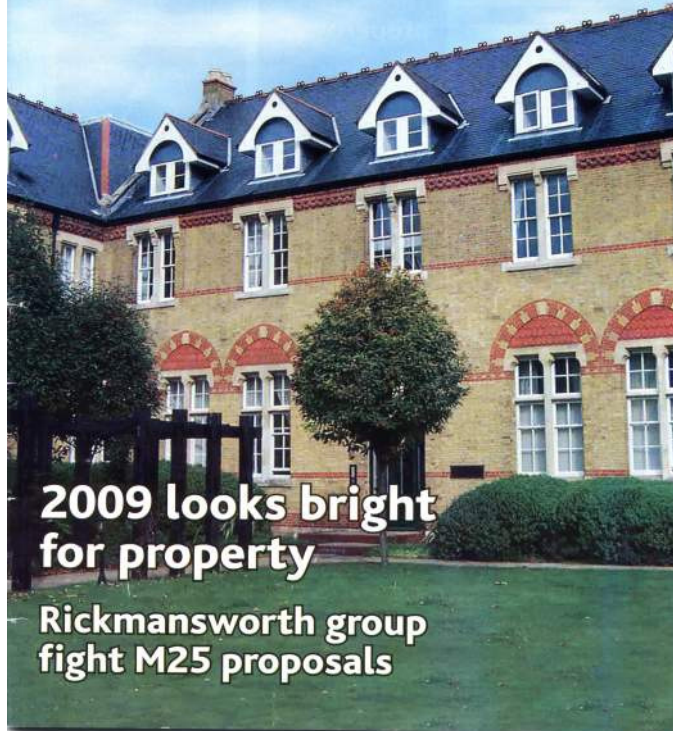

Avenues is a local independent publishing company

20p where sold

AVENUES

south west Hertfordshire

property

2009 looks bright for property

Rickmansworth group fight M25 proposals

Win a three-course Sunday lunch for two

There aren't many places that you can enjoy a freshly cooked three-course Sunday lunch while watching the wonders of light aviation through the window.

Except of course, if you are at the 3 Greens restaurant at Elstree Aerodrome (Hogg Lane, Elstree), where owner Caroline Whitney (left in picture), is focused on fresh homemade meals served in comfortable and relaxed surroundings. Whitney has worked in leading London hotels and was even a member of the brigade that catered for the wedding breakfast of Prince Charles and Lady Diana Spencer at the famous Claridges.

WeLoveWatford.co.uk has one free three-course Sunday lunch for two. To win the prize, just email team@weloveeverywhere.co.uk the answer to the question below, before midnight on 5 February.

3 Greens owner and chef, Caroline Whitney, helped to cater for which famous wedding?

When answering the question please leave your name, postal address and telephone number.

CONTACT US:

AVENUES