

DISABLED FLYING TO BENEFIT FROM 3 GREENS RESTAURANT RAFFLE

Fancy flying an Aeroplane? How about going for a ride in a helicopter? Or tucking into a kingsize luxury chocolate egg? Well, these are just three of the many prizes that Caroline Whitney, owner of 3 Greens restaurant at Elstree Aerodrome is giving away in her Easter raffle. Caroline decided she wanted to raise money for the British Disabled Flying Association after meeting its Chairman, Simon Rapkin, for coffee one day at her restaurant and being impressed with the work that the charity does. Mr Rapkin, of Edgware, said: "I am thrilled that Caroline is supporting the charity. As well as agreeing to host an event in the summer she is hoping to raise £500 from the sale of the raffle tickets. It really is wonderful." In response, Caroline said: "I would like to thank all our customers who have generously bought the tickets and also all the people that were involved in donating prizes." Mr Rapkin will be drawing the winning tickets at the 3 Greens restaurant on Easter Sunday, so if you would like to support this worthwhile cause, then you can buy your tickets from 3 Greens restaurant, Elstree Aerodrome, Hogg Lane, Elstree. For more information on the work that the British Disabled Flying Association carries out you can email simon.rapkin@bdfa.net.
