

Caroline Whitney presents the winners' shield to the triumphant team at 3 Greens' first charity quiz night

Restaurant to hold quiz night

THE restaurant with the constantly changing view, 3 Greens located on the apron of Elstree Aerodrome, is hosting its second charity quiz night on Saturday, February 20.

Entrance costs £15 a head which includes a two course home cooked meal of bangers and mash and sticky toffee pudding. There will also be a vegetarian option available.

There will be a cash prize for the winning team and the proceeds of the raffle will be donated to a charity of the winners' choice.

The restaurant is run by Caroline Whitney from Watford who hosted her first curry and quiz evening in November. It was a huge success with proceeds of the raffle going to the Peace Hospice.

Caroline's husband, Paul Darkin, who will be quiz master for the evening again, said: "Originally we thought we would do this twice a year but when we started getting calls asking when the next one was we decided we would bring it forward.

"It was also nice that we were able to donate £100 from the proceeds of the raffle to the Peace Hospice. This time we thought it would be a nice idea if the winning team decided which local charity they would like us to support."

Space is limited so if you would like to enter a team and support your favourite local charity, book a table at 3 Greens restaurant by calling 0208 953 6013 or visiting www.3greens.com
