Watford resident Caroline Whitney has taken over the restaurant at the Elstree Aerodrome?

This former greasy spoon has been refurbished beyond recognition and is now serving delicious sandwiches from bread baked that morning on the premises, delicious lunches and afternoon teas - complete with homemade jam! and a traditional 3 course sunday lunch! Caroline has a wealth of experience, including being part of the team that catered the wedding breakfast at Claridges for Prince Charles and Lady Diana Spencer, she was also responsible for the running of the English side of the Orient Express. So you know you are in good hands! A 3 course Sunday lunch is available from 12-3pm every Sunday for £15.95, with only the finest meat and freshest vegetables being served.
